(Abdulla – name shown on ID card)

From: Afghanistan, Fariyab city, Gurzibon region

I was in Madrasa, in Pakistan. I went to Islamabad to find the way to go to a foreign country. I stayed at Musa's house. While I was staying at Musa's house he was preparing my documents (passport, student card, etc). I was captured in Musa's house by Pakistani authorities. Approximately 28 days I was in jail. Then Pakistani authorities handed me to Americans and from there I was sent to Kandahar, Afghanistan. I stayed there about 5-6 months and then was transported to Cuba. All allegations in the summary of evidence for the Tribunal were false except the one about passport. I had no idea that Musa was Arab. I only stayed in his house to get my documents done. They came to capture Musa and got me along with him. I was in a wrong place in a wrong time. I'm asking you to review my case.
